STARTING UP

1. Set up your Genesis system as described in the instruction manual. Plug in Control Pad 1. [Plug in Control Pad 2 for two-player games]
2. Make sure the power switch is OFF. Insert the JOE & MAC game cartridge into the console and press it down firmly.
3. Turn the power switch ON. In a few moments, the SEGA screen will appear.
4. Press the Start button when the title screen appears.

IMPORTANT: If the SEGA screen does not appear, turn the power switch OFF. Make sure your system is set up correctly and that the cartridge is properly inserted, with its label facing towards you. Then turn the power switch ON again. Always make sure the power switch is turned OFF before inserting or removing the SEGA cartridge.

PROLOGUE

The dawn of Humanity is no picnic - just ask Joe & Mac.

These two cave-dudes just want to hang out and eat and drink. But their peace is shattered when they leave their village to party in the mountains, only to come back and find that some mean Neanderthals have come and kidnapped all the women. So Joe and Mac must now set off on a prehistoric rescue mission to rescue their cave girls - and you know that ain't gonna be easy. Not with growling dinosaurs and more prehistoric creatures and dangers than you can shake a club at.

The Map

LET'S GET GOING!

(STARTING THE GAME)

Joe and Mac will have to travel through a sinister and primitive world, one filled with hungry predators, scheming savages, and all the bad elements Mother Nature can toss at them. The game consists of 5 zones, and there's a number of different routes the player may choose to take, giving a total of 15 levels. The object is to make it through each level, defeating whatever stands in the way between you and the cave girls. You'll get points for stomping and beating up all the prehistoric life-forms that get in your way, and collecting food and weapons along the way will keep you strong and make you a more powerful caveman.

Every level features a terrible Boss at the end, who must be soundly defeated before continuing on. Don't let Joe and Mac become some Dinosaur's in-between meal snack!

WEAPONS

Joe and Mac know where to look for help in fighting off their enemies. Defeating an egg-carrying Neanderthal sometimes reveals a weapon that the boys can use - providing that they can get their hands on it quickly! And no self-respecting caveman would turn down the chance to handle the following prehistoric power tools:

AXE

Joe and Mac begin their adventures with nice, sturdy weapons; Joe has an axe and Mac a bone. These will get the job done, but requires getting up close to the enemy.

FLINT

This is better - a missile that can be tossed from a distance.

BOOMERANG

The Boomerang hits 'em and then returns so it can be tossed again.

FIRE

Throwing balls of fire at your foes is the closest the boys will come to a weenie roast this century.

STONE WHEEL

Rolling stone wheels right into the middle of your enemies will scatter them good.

CAVEMAN COLLECTIBLES

Rescuing cave girls makes a caveman tired and hungry, so be sure to pick up the following items when they appear - or by breaking open eggs:

FOOD

A juicy morsel of fruit, a tender steak or even a nice slice of cake will do wonders for your health. You even get points for each piece of food eaten [burp!]

ENEMIES

Each of the various levels Joe & Mac must travel through are stocked with uncivilized - and VERY unfriendly - creatures. Plus dangerous plant-forms too. Such as:

BABY PTERANODONS

They might look cute, but don't try tickling their chins! These 'Winged Lizards' are flying fiends. Watch out for their dive-bombing techniques!

ARCHAEOPTERYX

A crow-sized feathered dinosaur. He's small, but dangerous.

ZEPHYROSAURUS

A plant-eating dinosaur whose name means ' West-Wind Lizard.' For some reason, he doesn't like Joe & Mac one bit. Other dangers that await...

TYRANT TRIFFIDS

A mythical man/caveman-eating, seed-spitting plant similar to a giant Venus Fly-trap. This ain't no daisy to pluck. It has deadly vines and poisonous seeds that it can spit out like bullets.

HELIROCK BOMBS

Fiery packages of doom dropped by Caveman Crowswing from his flying Helirockter. Whether airborne or grounded, this is one dangerous cave-dude.

ELECTRIC FLYING FISH

These fish never pay an electric bill, but get too close and they'll give you the shock of your life!

CONTINUING THE GAME

Joe & Mac each have four lives; once these are lost, the game is over. You can continue from where you left off when the Continue Screen appears by pressing START.

HIGH SCORE CHART

Fame awaits those who have successfully pummeled all the prehistoric predators and rescued those girlfriends. If your score is eligible for the High Score Chart, you will be asked to enter your name in the CAVEMAN HALL OF FAME.

Select three letters by using the Direction Pad to move through the alphabet, and pressing FIRE.

GAMEPLAY HINTS 'N TIPS

Fire can be your most powerful weapon.

There are more ways than one to crack an egg open, so be inventive. And when it comes to hurting a Neanderthal, nothing beats jumping on his head!

Try to discover which Power-Up works best in each particular situation.
